

WINNING BIDS MASTERCLASS

An interactive masterclass for those new to bid writing

"Practical, honest and invaluable" - our Winning Bids Masterclass is designed to give you the skills and confidence to write successful funding bids.

An interactive, professional but informal training day to equip your school or organisation with the necessary knowledge and insight to submit a successful funding bid.

WINNING BIDS IS FOR:

- Those who feel they don't have the time to write a bid
- Those who have a fear of failure and don't know where to start
- Those new to bid writing; keen to learn the skills and techniques to funding applications
- Those who find application forms daunting and difficult to fill in
- Bid writers in need of a refresher and a confidence boost!
- Staff in schools or charitable organisations who have a responsibility for raising funds

WINNING BIDS WILL:

- Unlock the secrets to successful grant applications
- Help you to understand what grant funders want from us
- Provide you with the resources and templates you need to improve your chances of writing a successful bid
- Help you work through a real funding bid, identifying easy wins and common mistakes to avoid
- Identify sources of funds and how to seek out those most appropriate for your needs
- Be delivered by award winning school business specialist Justin Smith
